Red Letter Day

Last Sunday being the fourth, Missionary rally day under the ministry of Bro. Gibbs at old Crooked Creek church should not be numbered with the small things.—you all know that it was a hot day but notwithstanding the excessive heat of the day we were all there, some come late, some come early some horse back-some in buggies-some in wagons-some in autos-last but not least, some came walking. At 10:30 the song services began with Lizzie Enoch at the organ altho the organ collapsed a time or two, but the skill of Bros. Driver and Enoch with the use of a few veterinary tools the break was repaired and the music was excellent. The Sunday School gave us a short exercise after which Bro. Gibbs gave us one of his good sermons, I shall not give you the text now, you ought to have been there. At the close of the sermon a collection was tak-en for missions which was al-most equal to foreign collections, this brought us to the noon hour and oh! it was a time of refresh-ing in the presence of scores of the best people in this crooked backland who brought boxes, baskets, buckets and a whole lot of other things; and straw ber-ries and strawberry pies, chick-en, ham and eggs and that was not all, we had cakes large and small and I was there. After dinner the auto brought us our beloved Bro. Miller who preach-ed us a fine sermon on prayer in missions. We then had a collec-tion for the worn out Preachers and the orphans which resulted nicely. We were sorry that the Dr. was not there to head the subscription list which would have made five dollars more. I wish the fourth Sunday in May would come twice a year. Don't you. F.
